FOREWORD

Daylilies can be relied upon for a wealth of bloom and masses of color in practically all types of soil and weather without the fuss and bother of combating insects and disease. In mid-summer, when bloom from other perennials is scarce, daylilies are at their peak. During and after mid-summer vacation neglect, the bright starlike flowers of hemerocallis are always there and waiting to greet you. Most reliable of all flowers "The Flower of Character".

Eminent plant breeders have made rapid progress in the development and improvement of Hemerocallis. The flowers are as large and beautiful as those of the finest bulb lillies. Established plants of some varieties have flowering scapes (stalks) with as many as fifty buds which open and flower over a two to six week period. Daylilies are now available in a wide range of colors, color patterns, heights and flower shapes. A proper selection of varieties will furnish bloom spring to frost. All varieties have the quality of facing their flowers outward to the light or open when planted near walls, shrubbery, etc.

Daylily uses are many and varied. They are equally at home in the perennial border, rock garden, foreground of shrubbery or evergreen plantings, near pools and along the banks of small streams. They require very little attention and are easy to grow and transplant. Their charm and beauty in the garden is creating many new daylily enthusiasts annually. Try a few this year. They are permanent and will be a pleasure for years.

SUGGESTIONS

The quarterly News Letters and beautiful year-book issued by the Hemerocallis Society are worth more than the $3 annual dues. Write Daisy L. Ferrick, Sec'y, The Hemerocallis Society, 416 Arter Ave., Topeka, Kansas.

Kodachrome Slide Collections of Daylilies, Roses, Iris, Flower Arrangements, etc., can be rented from Philip Corlis, Box 68, Somerton, Ariz. Daylily collections also from The Hemerocallis Society.

DILL 1954 INTRODUCTIONS

AUGUST JOY. (Dill 1954). Medium sized apricot yellow flowers with a glistening silky finish. A fragrant addition to the late bloomers. Deciduous. 3½ ft. $3.00

MAIDA. (Dill 1954). Although the bloom size is medium, only 4 inches, the Indian Red petals are 1½ inches wide. Sepals are a shade lighter and 1 inch wide. Wax yellow throat. Deciduous. 33 inches. $3.00.

MYNA. (Dill 1954.) Introducing small flowered varieties is not the usual thing during this period of fast progress in daylily development. Petals and sepals are an attractive soft shade of red. Small lime yellow throat and white wire edge on sepals enhance the beauty. The 3 inch flowers are fragrant and sun resistant. Blooms early midseason thru midseason when established. 3½ ft. $3.00.

HOME GIRL. (Dill 1954). 5 inch, pale yellow (Plate 9-K-1) blossoms with wide segments. A tint of green in the throat adds to the beauty of the fragrant blooms. 3½ foot scapes are top and side branched. Deciduous. Fall Delivery. $5.00.

HEMEROCALLIS

Our listing groups the various varieties in accordance with their blooming periods. Group No. 1 lists those that bloom first in Spring. Group No. 2 those that are starting to bloom as the first group finishes, etc. Blooming periods will vary to some extent under different conditions of sun, shade and moisture. Our manner of listing, should enable our customers to conveniently select varieties to obtain continuous bloom.

GROUPS 1 and 2 combined. MAY and MAY-JUNE here.

HARDINESS LINE: On a U. S. Map draw a line from the Northwest tip of the State of Oklahoma to Cleveland, Ohio and from Cleveland to Boston, Mass. Some varieties, usually with evergreen foliage, suffer injury and sometimes winter kill North of this line.

EVERGREEN refers to the foliage of varieties that remain evergreen throughout the winter in the far South. This class is less hardy North. North of the "Hardiness Line" they require good drainage Spring planting and winter mulching.

SPRING OR SUMMER TRANSPLANTING is recommended in localities North of the "Hardiness Line".

FIRST YEAR RESULTS: Early blooming varieties planted in Spring may fail to bloom until the following Spring. Do not judge any variety the first year as the performance with respect to flower size, color, plant height and branching are all below par.

PLANT DAYLILIES with bleached line on foliage at ground level, or with root crown approximately 1½ inches below surface.

MULCHING: A first winter mulch is desirable. The purpose is to protect the crown and the top soil a few inches around it from winter and early Spring thawing. Do not use soggy material. A nest of excelsior is good.

GUARANTEE: We use care to keep our plants true to name and are willing to replace, on proper proof, any found to be otherwise, but it is mutually agreed that in no case shall we be liable for more than the original cost.

MAIL ORDERS: On orders under $3.00 please add 25c for packing and shipping. Missouri customers include sales tax.

PLANTS ARE SENT parcelpost post paid. Orders over $5 are sent "Special Handling" to insure passenger train transit.
